

10 YEARS AS THE NATION'S PREMIER SUSTAINABILITY EVENT

"Turn Your Event Green" – Panel Moderated by Andrea Robinson of ARC Sustainability

Oct. 29, 2011 at 2:30pm on the Green Living Stage
Los Angeles Convention Center
Los Angeles, CA

For the past ten years, the Green Festival has been an annual or bi-annual event in San Francisco. The Green Festival has also taken place elsewhere across the country, with Chicago, Seattle, and Washington D.C. to name a few locations. Now, for the first time in its decade of existence, the Green Festival is coming to Los Angeles. Green Festival is excited to host a fantastic repertoire of local, national and internationally renowned social and environmental authors, leaders, experts and visionaries. Keynotes include Jeffrey Smith, John Perkins, Amy Goodman, Mark Hertsgaard, Rev. Lennox Yearwood, Jr., David Korten and many more to be announced. For directions and public transportation to the LA Convention Center, visit the LA Convention Center website. This information will also be available on the Green Festival website under the Los Angeles Travel page. For more information, please visit <http://www.greenfestivals.org/>
